THE RADICAL SENATORIAI. PLATFORM.-The following are the resolutions adopted by the Radical Senatorial Convention, which was in session in this city yesterday :

Whereas, the Democratic party at their late-Convention at Richmond utterly failed to an-nounce their opinion on any great measure of public policy, and have simply announced as their platform "opposition to Radicalism;" Resolved, By the Republicans of the 1st Senatorial District, that in order that the people may distinctly understand the principles of "Radicalism" to which the Democratic party have vowed death and destruction, we hereby re-affirm the following well-known principles of the Republican party.

1. Amnesty, conciliation, and good will toward all the peaceable and orderly citizens of the

VETO MESSAGE.—The Police bill, as it is called, passed the City Council on Tuesday night last, over the veto of the Mayor, whose reasons were given in the following communi- otherwise badly bruised about the head from

> MAYOR'S OFFCE, ALEXANDRIA, July 19th, 1871.

To the Honorable City Council: Gentlemen: I return to you, without my official signature, "an act to amend an act entitled an act to re-organize the police of Alexandria.' This is precisely the same act passed by the last City Council at their last meeting, but one, the veto message on which was sent to you. I entertained strong hopes that my message would be maturely considered, which would prevent the re-enactment of the same measure. The fact that a committee of conference was deemed advisable evidences that there were strong doubts as to the propriety of the measure. I carnestly entreat the members to look at the Constitution of the State before finally compromising their judgments on this act. I regret the necessity which compels me to dissent from the action of the present City Council. As I stated in my former veto the 2nd section clearly trenches upon the Constitutional prerogatives of the Mayor, which the present incumbent will not submit to, even if the law's passed over his veto. I respectfully refer you o my former veto message on this subject. 1 have no objection to the 1st section, although there is no necessity even for that. The present May or never appoints a ready-man who is not agreeable to the Captain of Police, nor without consulting him; therefore it is no desire for power that actuates him in making such appointments. Permit me to ask a respectful hearing and consideration of my views on such subjects as may be presented from time to time. HUGH LATHAM, Mayor.

CASE OF ARSON .- Carrie Wilson, a white woman, who came to this city with a Michigan regiment, during the war, and has been an inmate of the Poor's House, station house, and work house, on various occasions since, was arrested, yesterday evening, for setting fire to a bed in her room, with the avowed purpose of burning her own and her neighbors' houses. She borrowed some matches from a little colored boy, tore open a matress and set fire to the straw, and then told the boy what she had done, who gave the alarm, when by the timely application of a few buckets of water the flames were extinguished.

AN IMPOSTER.—The Nashville Banner says that several months since one Captain S. Adams Lee introduced himself to the citizens of Murfreesboro' and vicinity as a nephew of the lamented General R. E. Lee and as captain of the Merrimac in the late war. He had but one leg, and this, coupled with the delivery of several lectures ostensibly in behalf of the Lee Memorial Fund, added to his popularity, and he was elected professor in Soule College, received a license to preach and became a great man. But Fitzhugh Lee and General G. W. C. Lee having denied all knowledge of him, of course Captain S. Adams Lee has abandoned his class in the Soule College and sought new Bischoff of the German Lutheran Church of this city, has accepted a call from the church of the same denomination at Charlottesville, to preach there one Sunday in each month. Mr. B. will retain his pastorate of the church here, and during his absence from this city his pulpit will be filled by Rev. Wm. Frey of Washington.

CORRECTION. - We were in error, yesterday, in stating that the Rev. J. T. Leftwich, formerly of this city, was lying dangerously ill at Liberty, Bedford county, Va. It should have been the father of the Reverend gentleman, who is an aged and most highly respected citizen of Liberty.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Nearly all the railway, express and steamer lines have announced their readiness to transport contributions for the Chicago sufferers free of charge. The Times this morning states that the Lord Mayor has received £17,000 as the result of two day's subscriptions to the Chicago relief fund, and that lists have been opened for the reception of contributions at Birmingham, Bradford, Hanley and other towns in the manufacturing districts. The Times also has a leading article in which reviewing the Chicago conflagration and the great fires now ravaging the fields and forests of the northwest and adducing the prompt action of the United States authorities on suppressing the attempted Fenian invasion of Manitoba under Gen. O'Niell, it draws the conclusion that England and the Englishmen are herein furnished with every incentive to labor and to give for the alleviation of the suffering caused by the dreadful calamities in the

The Late Fires in Wisconsin-Terrible Loss of Life.

JANESVILLE. WIS., Oct. 13. -Governor Fairchild telegraphed the following from Green Bay in relation to the Wisconsin fires to-night: The appaling calamity has not been exaggerated. Over 3000 men, women and children are now destitute. The loss of life has been very great. Not less than 500 persons have been burned at Pishtego and vicinity and 300 on the eastern shore. Scores of men, women and children are now in temporary hospitals burned and maimed. Money, clothing, bed-ding, boots and shoes and provisions of all kinds, uncooked, are wanted; also building materials and everything needed by a family to commence life with. People are responding nobly but there is no danger of too much being received. The destitute must be provided for during the winter.
